Dear Friends,

As your Rector, Senior Warden, and Junior Warden, we have had the privilege of consulting with Judge and Glenn to begin the initial stages of transforming our music program. As they move toward retirement, the Vestry has made the decision to hire a person who can serve as both Choir Director and Organist and perhaps play additional instruments. While we are excited at the prospect of exploring new ways of providing music at St. Barnabas, we are also grateful that Judge and Glenn are ready and willing to participate in the process. We honor their legacy of service to the parish and look forward to continued worship with them in the future.

Over the last several years, we have made incremental steps to broaden our appeal to the community. Much time, effort and money has been dedicated to modifying our campus and hiring a Christian Educator. Now, we have made the decision to expand our music program. Our prayer is that Judge and Glenn will continue to play a vital role in the overall life of St. Barnabas and serve as guest performers in the music program as they feel comfortable. We have also asked Glenn to continue his work as Sexton.

The Vestry is considering multiple initiatives to honor Judge and Glenn for their service and to celebrate their retirement. Finally, we offer our sincerest thanks to Judge and Glenn for decades of dedicated service to St. Barnabas and we pray for an ongoing relationship with them in parish life.

Blessings,

The Rev. Sean Wall
